6.0 Process for Availing Leaves: This is the below mentioned format for applying leaves –

Use CL First>> Then Use EL>> Then Use LOP

(Use your Casual Leave (CL) first. Once CL is exhausted, switch to Earned Leave (EL). After both types of paid leave are used up, any additional absence will be treated as Leave Without Pay (LOP))

Employees must apply for planned leave in writing to their Immediate Reporting Manager (IRM) at least 15 days in advance, except for Maternity Leave. In specific cases, leave applications may need to be submitted up to 30 days in advance, depending on project guidelines or client agreements.

In unavoidable or exceptional circumstances, employees must inform their IRM or the HR department on the same day before the start of their shift via a call/Message/Email. Once they resume work, they are required to submit the leave on the portal.

7.0 Sandwich Leave Policy: The Sandwich Rule is a leave policy where weekends or holidays falling between two leave days are also counted as leave. For example, if you take leave on Friday and Monday, Saturday and Sunday are included in your total leave days.

We do not observe a Sandwich Policy if any employee has a leave balance (CL/EL) in their account. However, the Sandwich rule would be applicable if employees do not have any paid leave (CL/EL) and take two leaves where weekends/declared holidays fall in between. That means weekends and holidays falling between two LOP's will be considered as absenteeism.

8.0 Leaves in Notice Period: Upon resignation, all leave balances will be frozen and will lapse at the time of relieving. No additional leaves, including Casual Leave (CL) or Earned Leave (EL), will be credited to employees during the notice period.

While serving the notice period, employees are permitted to avail only National/Festive Holidays and Leave Without Pay (LOP). Any other leaves taken during the notice period will be treated as LOP, and the notice period will be extended by the number of days the employee is absent during this time.

It is the responsibility of employees to submit regularization requests within the given timeframe and ensure timely approval from their Immediate Reporting Manager (IRM).

5.0 Leaves & Absences: Employees are entitled to take paid leaves (refer Leave Policy section 5.0) as provided by the Company. Employees must intimate their upcoming leaves to IRMs and update it on portal.

6.0 Punctuality in Leave & Attendance Marking: Not marking time off and proper sign in and out timing on the HRMS portal within the prescribed timelines is a policy violation as it leads to incorrect leave balance & related payroll implications.
